

Corporate Human Resources Policy Manual

This document defines the Human Resources policies and procedures applicable to all employees of the organization. It aims to ensure fairness, transparency, compliance, and a positive work environment.

1. Introduction & Purpose

The purpose of this HR Policy Manual is to outline the company's approach to people management, employee conduct, and workplace standards. These policies apply to all permanent, contractual, and temporary employees unless otherwise specified.

2. Employment Categories

Employees may be classified as Full-Time, Part-Time, Contractual, Interns, or Consultants. Employment terms, benefits, and entitlements vary based on the category and are detailed in individual employment agreements.

3. Recruitment & Selection

The organization follows a fair and merit-based recruitment process. Selection is based on qualifications, skills, experience, and cultural fit. Discrimination of any kind is strictly prohibited.

4. Onboarding & Probation

All new employees undergo an onboarding program and a probation period, typically ranging from 3 to 6 months. Confirmation of employment is subject to satisfactory performance and conduct.

5. Working Hours & Attendance

Standard working hours are defined by the company and may vary by role. Employees are expected to maintain punctuality and regular attendance. Attendance may be tracked using automated systems.

6. Leave Policy

Employees are entitled to various types of leave including Earned Leave, Casual Leave, Sick Leave, Public Holidays, and Special Leave as per company norms and applicable labor laws.

7. Compensation & Benefits

Compensation structures are competitive and reviewed periodically. Benefits may include health insurance, statutory benefits, performance incentives, and other role-specific perks.

8. Performance Management

Employee performance is reviewed periodically through structured appraisal systems. Goals, feedback, and development plans are documented to support growth and accountability.

9. Code of Conduct

Employees must act with integrity, professionalism, and respect. Any form of harassment, misconduct, conflict of interest, or unethical behavior may result in disciplinary action.

10. Anti-Harassment Policy

The organization maintains zero tolerance towards harassment, including sexual harassment. Complaints are handled confidentially and in accordance with applicable laws.

11. Information Security & Confidentiality

Employees must protect company information, intellectual property, and customer data. Unauthorized disclosure or misuse of information is a serious violation.

12. IT & Acceptable Use Policy

Company IT resources are to be used responsibly and primarily for business purposes. Monitoring may be conducted to ensure compliance.

13. Health, Safety & Well-being

The company is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace. Employees must follow safety guidelines and report hazards or incidents promptly.

14. Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary measures may be taken in cases of policy violations. Actions range from verbal warnings to termination, depending on severity.

15. Grievance Redressal

Employees are encouraged to raise concerns through defined grievance channels. All grievances will be addressed fairly and promptly.

16. Separation & Exit Policy

Employment separation may occur due to resignation, termination, retirement, or redundancy. Exit formalities include notice periods, handover, and clearance.

17. Policy Review & Amendments

The company reserves the right to modify or update these policies to align with business needs or legal requirements.

Acknowledgement

All employees are required to read, understand, and comply with the policies outlined in this document. This policy manual does not constitute an employment contract and may be amended at the company's discretion.
